If such a shameful practice prevails, it is easy enough to understand why the Custom-House Inspectors cry "stand and deliver" to strangers who arrive on the steamships. They naturally seek to rob others in order to get back the money that has been extorted from them as the He Has Been Leading a Gay Life Neither Is She in Rome, but Is price of their appointments.

M'KANE'S CASE,

The action of John Y. McKane, the satrap of Coney Island, during the election certainly ought to be brought to the notice of a Grand Jury with a view to his indictment. He is charged with conspiracy to defeat the Election charge of intoxication. With him were laws, with assault, riot, contempt of arraigned David T. as Ridgway is District-Attorney?" There is some reason in this remark in view of the result of the Grand Jury investigation of charges against Mayor Boody and the Brooklyn Aldermen before election and the fate of the presenfore election and the fate of the presentation of the Mayor by a Grand Jury. But then it must be remembered that the people have spoken since then, and that the result is shown in their verdict and in the "vindication" of the Mayor so strikingly illustrated by "The Evening World's" excellent artist yesterday.

District-Attorney Ridgway has good cause to be careful. Although Gov. Flower is just now backing and filling in relation to Sheriff Courtney's case, Mr. Ridgway may rest assured that the Governor is not the sort of a man to defy or to disregard the popular will.

The fact is, ladies have not paid for the Spring and Summer toilettes, and of them told the writer that she found it impossible to get even a third of the money due six months. The bills go to tow her out of range of the forts and batteries daughters do not let money matters bother them is proved by the fact of with the modiste whether she fills them or not. If she does she may be a year or more collecting, and if she doesn't, the goods will be left on her hands to get out of style and depreciate. In any event, the outlook for approsperous Winter is discouraging. The opera season

Women Are Getting Smaller.

A generation ago forty-two inches was the average length of the American plain satin sleeves are covered with woman's skirt; now the average is pink chiffon, matching the festoon forty-five. Model dresses made in Paris the skirt. have to be lengthened for customers The French woman is proverbiall short, and her measure shortens with age. In New York the improvement o the sex is quite remarkable. While the England, on the highlands of Borne middle-aged women show an inclination to grow broader across the hips and gave an account of how the shoulders and through the arms, fre quently cultivating disfiguring corporations through indolent and indulgent habits of life, the college graduate, the university woman and the debutante grows more like the English lady every year. Not only is she from two to four inches longer from the waist down, but her waist is getting longer, her chest fuller and her limbs narrower. She is supple, agile and compact, and light and graceful of movement. This long waist, long
